

Call for Student Papers

ISECON 2005!

THE Conference for Information Systems Educators

Join Us in New Orleans on October 6 to 9, 2005

ISECON (Information Systems Educators Conference) is the conference to attend to learn about and contribute to the latest trends and issues in the Information Systems field. Held annually since 1982, it is the largest continuously running conference for IS Education.

ISECON encourages productive dialog between academia and industry regarding information systems education. Conference attendees are educators and professionals researching the design, development, and use of various technologies with the goal of helping faculty to stay current in the field while producing higher-quality graduates.

New to the conference this year, we have added a Graduate Track to the proceedings. Graduate and undergraduate students are encouraged to submit papers, panels, workshops, and presentations on:

- Graduate Teaching Experiences
- Ethics
- IS Education – Best Practices
 - Collaborative (with non IS Faculty)
 - Foundation Courses
 - Distance Education
- Keeping Up With Technology
- Pedagogy
- Project Management
- Security
- Leading Edge Technologies
- Service Learning

Submission Deadlines

June 30, 2005 - includes consideration for best paper awards, consideration for proceedings publication, and consideration for inclusion in ISEDJ (Information Systems Education Journal, a peer-reviewed journal)

July 31, 2005 - includes consideration for proceedings publication and consideration for inclusion in ISEDJ

August 20, 2005 - includes consideration for proceedings publication

For more details and submission guidelines visit <http://isecon.org/>